Get to Know Cheryl....

Cheryl and her husband, John, have two grown daughters, Danna and Deborah, and their son J.T. is a senior at Mt. Paran Christian School. After experiencing a call on her life years ago, Cheryl left a successful real estate career and began teaching preschool. She currently teaches three year olds at Mt. Paran, and she pours her heart and soul into the lives of her students every day by teaching them, guiding them, playing with them, praying for them, and most of all, loving them!

On October 27th, 2010, Cheryl underwent her first chemotherapy for adenocarcinoma in her lung. Although Cheryl has never smoked, she was diagnosed with lung cancer a little over a month earlier. In the ensuing months, many emotions have been felt, but in the forefront is the wonder of seeing her firm faith sustain her through her fiery trial. Cheryl spent most of last winter in Houston, Texas at MD Anderson Cancer Center receiving specialized treatment, and the doctors there continue to guide her care.

Cheryl continues to be an inspiration and a blessing to all who know her.
